Rules for Mr. White's Classroom

1. Be Respectful
  - a. Talking is allowed in some situations, such as group work, class discussion, etc. However, unless otherwise instructed, you are to remain quiet.
  - b. Standing or moving around before the end of class bell rings is not allowed unless otherwise instructed to do so.
  - c. Throwing of anything is not allowed.
2. Be Prepared
  - a. Use the bathroom before class.
  - b. Bring all materials to class that are required. Sometimes only certain books will be required. You will be informed at the end of each class what is needed for the next class. This information will also be on the board. If this information is not provided, assume you need to bring all textbooks/notebooks.
  - c. Have your homework ready to turn in.
3. Be Prompt
  - a. Come to class on time.
  - b. Immediately begin the bellwork that is on the board. Teaching begins the moment the bell rings.
  - c. No late assignments are accepted unless you have a valid and official excuse.

These rules should always be followed. I reserve the right to expand on the rules throughout the year. You and your parents will be informed of this.

Possible Punishments

- Loss of participation points. Each day is worth participation points. If you break the rules you may lose them.
- Write-ups. For severe cases of breaking the rules, you will be written up. This can lead to in-school suspension.

Please sign these rules and have your legal guardian sign these rules.
